

Eden Garden

Snapshot the panorama of the place and acknowledge the most iconic cricket stadium in the world. Eden Gardens was established in 1864 and is a must for cricket fans.

St. Paul's Cathedral

One of the oldest cathedrals in Kolkata known for its peaceful, spiritual ambience. It also exhibits classical European architecture. Come and lose yourself in the amazing world inside the cathedral.

Princep Ghat

Situated on the bank of Hooghly River, Princep Ghat is one of the oldest ghats built under the British Raj. Enjoy innumerable varieties of food available in the vicinity. Enjoy your evening while boating down the river and sipping on your favourite cup of chai while the views of the place enthrall you.

Birla Planetarium

The Birla Planetarium is a single-storeyed observatory built in the Indian architectural style that features daily astronomy shows in multiple languages. It offers the most wonderful visual experience of the universe inside a room.

The Marble Palace

This 19th-century neoclassical mansion in North Kolkata speaks volumes about the City of Palaces. Spend a time with your family or friends here and enjoy the architecture of this beauty.

The Indian Museum

The largest and oldest museum of India is situated right here in Kolkata. Behold the rare collection of antiques, armour and ornaments, fossils, skeletons, mummies, and Mughal paintings on your visit to this grand marvel.

Mother's Wax Museum

Established in 2014, this has a spectacular collection of wax figures of many great people. The best place to visit in Kolkata with kids as well as friends, this place has some of the most realistic wax figures that are bound to catch anyone's attention.

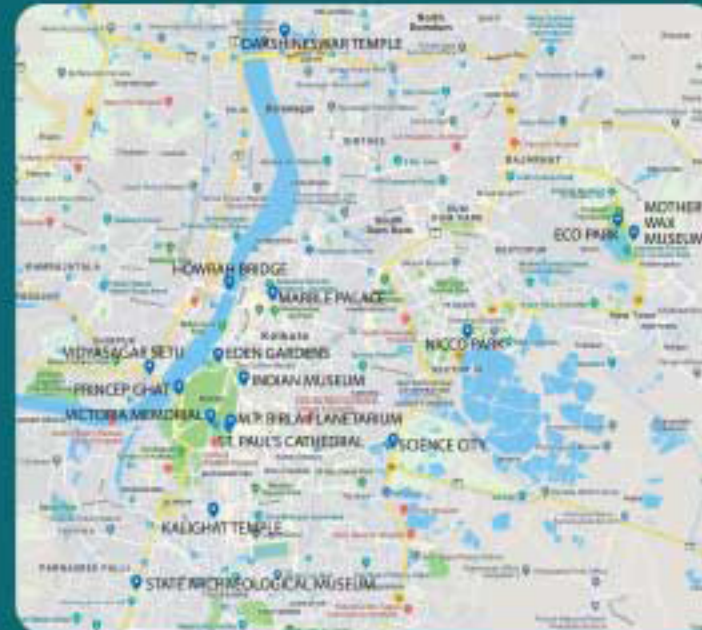

Eco Park, NewTown

This 480 acre urban park with 112 acres of waterbodies in the middle, is another tourist spot that people like to flock to on their Kolkata trip. Set amidst verdant green landscapes, it is an eco friendly hub and serves as one of the best picnic spots near Kolkata.

Bengali Cuisine

Kolkata is a gastronomical delight for all foodies, especially those with a sweet tooth. Equipped with all types of cuisines, the kitchens and street carts of Kolkata are known to offer marvels like the telebhaja, kathi rolls, churmur, and luchi aloor dum which are the unbeatable specialities. Other than these, sweets like rosogolla, sandesh, and mishti doi find a place on the menus of almost all authentic Kolkata restaurants. Those delicious dishes of fried seafood dipped in mustard gravy prepared in almost every household of Kolkata will have you coming back for more!

TOURISM CENTRE (Kolkata)
3/2 | B.B.D Bag (East) | Kolkata 700 001
24x7 Toll Free Helpline 1800 2121 655
tourismcentrekolkata@gmail.com

ONLINE INFORMATION & BOOKING
www.wbtourism.gov.in | www.wbidcl.com

facebook.com/tourismwb | twitter.com/TourismBengal
wbtourism

Kolkata

20 Exciting Things to do in Kolkata

Discover what makes it the City Of Joy

Need a break from reality? Discover the reasons behind this city's residents' unfaltering smiles. You'll be surprised to find the amount of fun and action hidden behind every street and alley. So, plan a detailed itinerary and don't forget to include all these activities in your travel diary.

Victoria Memorial

Constructed in the Indo-Saracenic Revival Architectural Style, Victoria Memorial is a large marble building that has been transformed into a museum.

The many Temples

Dakshineswar Temple and the Kalighat Temple are the two main temples in Kolkata. While Dakshineswar is located on the eastern banks of the Hooghly River, Kalighat adorns the suburbs of Anami Sangha.

Science City

The best place to visit for families and couples, Science City is an eco-friendly and easily accessible place for people of all ages and walks of life. It is the largest science centre in the Indian subcontinent under the National Council of Science Museums, Ministry of Culture, Government of India.

Howrah Bridge

An archetype for the art of engineering, Howrah Bridge is the best place to get romantic with your better half while touring in Kolkata. The walk on the sixth longest bridge is an unforgettable experience and simply one of the most fun things to do in Kolkata at night.

The Academy of Fine Arts

The perfect place to visit for an artist, the Academy of Fine Arts is one of the oldest in Kolkata. It is also a hub of culture and houses mesmerizing gallery displays and art exhibitions that can immediately instill the feeling of true love for arts and crafts in a person.

Nicco Park

This eco-friendly amusement park specially created to attract tourists from all over the country as well as the world is definitely worth to visit. Nicco Park provides a friendly environment and is suitable for people of all ages.

State Archaeological Gallery

The Gallery was established in 1962 and has a collection of rare artifacts, early stone tools, and antiques from many Palaeolithic, Mesolithic and Neolithic sites. Come and learn all about our evolution from early man to the modern day man.

Ekante Cottages, Eco Park

