About Lakshadweep islands

The only coral atolls in India, the Lakshadweep archipelago sits 400 kilometers west of the mainland. Its crystal-clear waters and easy-to-reach reefs make it one of the best diving destinations on the planet.

Facts

1.

All visitors need a special permit when heading to the Lakshadweep islands. Hotels and government booking agencies can arrange in advance.

2.

Bangaram is widely agreed to be the most beautiful of the islands, with the best options for divers and snorkelers.

3.

Luxury is the name of the game, with only higher-end options available. It means the Lakshadweep islands remain largely pristine.
