

Visit the Tranquil and Wonderful Sacred Grove

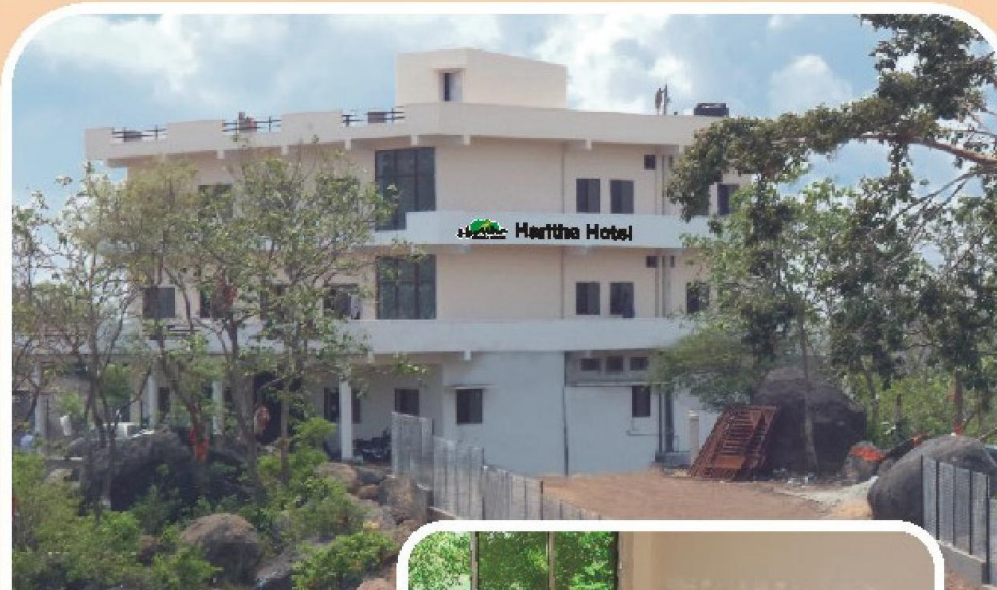

Kondagattu is located on state Highway going from Karimnagar to Jagtial at a distance of 35 km from Karimnagar. Kondagattu Temple located on a hillock is one of the most famous temples of Karimnagar District. Situated amidst hills, valleys and water falls, Kondagattu is blessed by nature and is very scenic.

Anjaneya Swamy Temple

The breathtakingly beautiful Temple, dedicated to Lord Anjaneya Swamy, is justly famous and attracts devotees from far and near.

Legend has it that 300 years ago, a cattle grazer came to this hillock in search of his strayed buffalo. He was very tired and fell asleep on the hillock. Lord Anjaneya appeared in his dream and disclosed the whereabouts of the buffalo. On awakening, the cowherd was amazed to find a glowing statue of Lord Anjaneya. In pure devotion he built a temple of Lord Anjaneya on the very same hillock, where the Lord had manifested.

The temple, besides the main deity of Anjaneya Swamy also has the idols of Lord Venkateswara, Goddess Sri Laxmi and Alwaars.

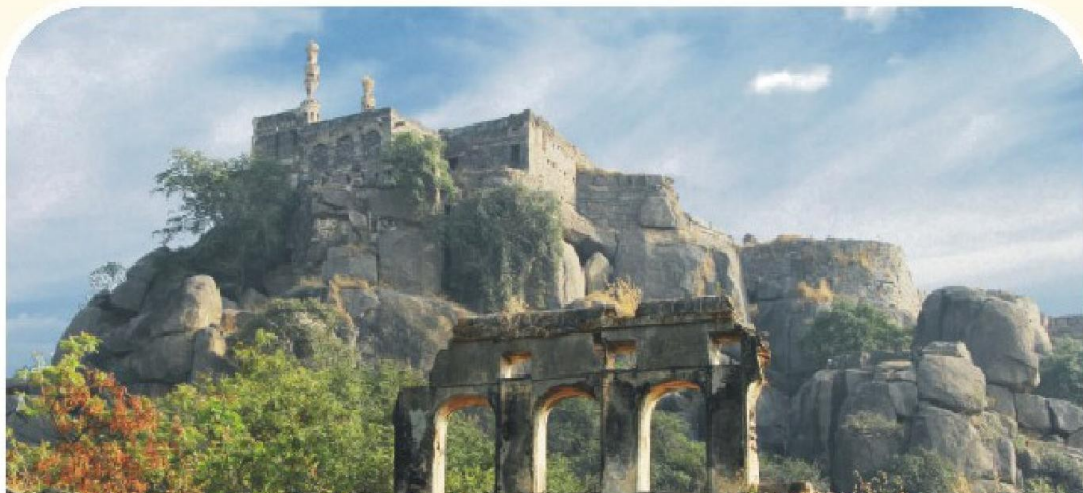

For childless couples, it is believed that if the woman offers worship at this temple for 40 days, then she will be blessed with a child. This temple is about 30 km away from Vemulawada. Apart from the temple, the fort of Kondalaraya and Bojjapotana which are to the north of the temple are worth seeing at Kondagattu.

If any one is interested in trekking one can get down the bus at the foot hill and start the trekking through Reserved Forest along the old steps to reach temple. During the trekking one can come across many species of flora and avian fauna, which includes Gyrocarpus Jacquini (Kummari Poniki), Anogeissus (Tirman), Mango, Neem, Ficus spp, Albizias (Dirishana), Lannea Coromadelica

Sri Lakshmi Narasimha Swamy Temple
